

Wilton Manors Historical Society's Updated Digital Archives and Web Site

WMHS invites you to explore our recently updated digital archive collection and enhanced web site at the new and easier to use address — wmhistory.org

In addition to the content from our previous site, there are major new additions to our on-line archives in the Research Library. Much of this material has not been previously available for on-line viewing and research. So, what's new ...?

- ◆ A Slide-Show and Educational Poster Presentations section. Among other topics, included here are collections from the City's 75th Anniversary celebration, recent WMHS Annual Meetings and the 2022 Broward Pioneer Day.
- ◆ A Books and Other Publications section. It includes historic books (including vintage recipe books); as well as academic theses/dissertations and essays/research papers on topics related to Wilton Manors and its neighbors.
- ◆ Revisions and additions to the Articles, Video Histories and Audio Histories sections. Video Histories now includes videos produced by the City, in collaborations with WMHS, for the 75th Anniversary celebration.
- ◆ And our most exciting new section, Mini-Archives. These are compilations of the documents, photographs and newspaper articles from our digital archive related to a particular subject, person/family, place or thing. This section is a work-in-progress and reflects just a sample of the types of collections we will be adding. (A recent addition is the complete 1926 Willingham "Wilton Manors" sales brochure and his original newspaper advertisements.)

We hope you enjoy your journey through Wilton Manors past! Send any comments or suggestions to the email address below.
