PHOTO #2

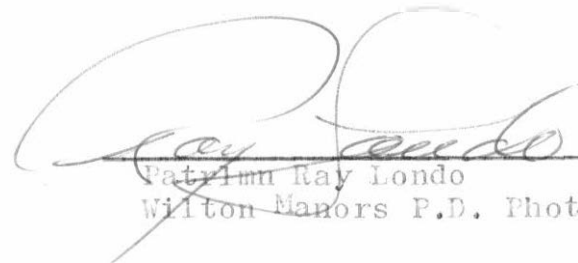

This photo is basically the same as photo #1 except for the fact that this photo was taken facing more to the North as to show a further degree of poor visibility.

PHOTO TAKEN:

TIME : 1:30 P.M.

DATE : May 2, 1962

LOCATION: NE 23rd St & NE 6th Ave.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Patrim Ray Londo', is written over a horizontal line.

This photo was taken for the sole purpose of showing the dense overgrowth of shrubbery above the wall located at this intersection. This photo was taken while facing a Northwest direction.

PHOTO TAKEN:

TIME : 1:30 P.M.

DATE : May 2, 1962

LOCATION: N.E. 23rd St @ NE 6th Ave.

PHOTO # 6

This photo was taken while facing a North direction to show the visibility of any vehicle driving North on NE 6th Ave approaching the NE 23rd St intersection

PHOTO TAKEN:

TIME : 1:30 PM

DATE : May 2, 1962

LOCATION: NE 23rd St @ NE 6th Ave

PHOTO # 7

This photo was taken while facing South on NE 6th Ave. to show the visibility a motorist approaching from this direction must encounter. If you will note, the model vehicle is partially hidden from the view of the approaching motorist.

PHOTO TAKEN:

TIME : 1:30 PM

DATE : May 2, 1962

LOCATION: NE 23rd St @ NE 6th Ave.

PHOTO # 8

This photo was taken to show the relationship of the model vehicle to the wall and shrubbery at this intersection. The vehicle was driven Westward, partially into the intersection proper, to attain the desired amount of visibility needed to clear the intersection safely.

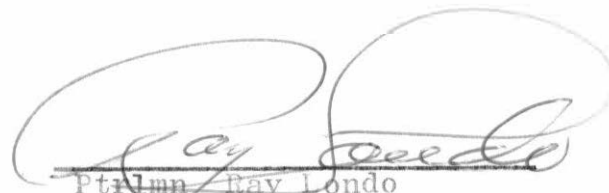

In this case, the model vehicle was stopped with the front bumper and the left front fender in such a position that if any vehicle attempting a left turn from NE 6th Ave onto NE 23rd St ( Southward to Eastward) would have to drive over the grass area in the park to avoid colliding.
