

Richardson Golf Course, NE 4th Ave., Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

78455

ca. 1940's postcard of Richardson Golf Course

Andrew's Ave. is in the foreground, Wilton Dr. is in the upper left and center background
Most of this area is now Manor Grove Townhomes

SCENES FROM THE RICHARDSON GOLF COURSE - CA. 1945

George Richardson, Senior
Rachel Richardson
George Richardson, Junior

I n t h e
1
9
4
0
s

George Richardson, Sr. on a 1930's Worthington Golf Tractor.
These tractors were made primarily from Ford Model A/B automobile engines, running gear and other parts.

George Sr. traveled the country as a golf course builder. After designing the Richardson course in 1936, the actual construction was handled by Rachel and George Jr. Rachel continued as the principal operator of the course, assisted by George Jr. and original employee Buddy Hicks, until it closed in 1956. George Jr. built the first section of the current Manor House for his new bride Helen in that same year.

RICHARDSON GOLF COURSE 9TH GREEN CA. 1940's

The 1920's-era Willingham House is located on the left, the still-standing Carriage House on the right. The green is where the first house on the left of 20th Street is now located. The Willingham house was torn down in the 1980's.

(George Richardson, Sr. and long-time family employee Buddy Hicks in the center)

U. S. G. A. Rules govern all play unless modified by the following:

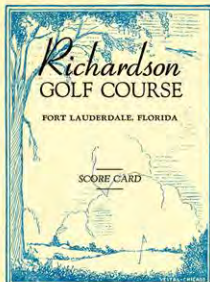

Local Rules

The roads on 6 and 9 are out of bounds.
Penalty: loss of distance.

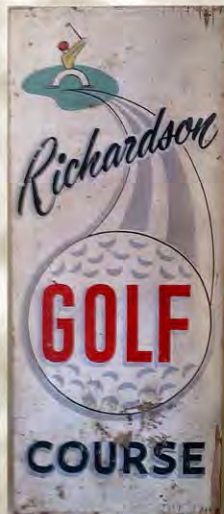

A ball may be lifted from the hole of a burrowing animal in hazard or fairway and dropped back one club length, without penalty.

A ball may be dropped back one club length from any drain-tile or water-plug anywhere on the course without penalty.

The ball may be lifted out of ditches on 2, 3, and 5 without the loss of a stroke.

Please Level Footprints in Sand Traps!

PUBLIC FEE COURSE
MRS. GEO. RICHARDSON, OWNER

ca. late 1940's