GOOD WATER BACK, PUBLIC REJOICES

Better-tasting water was back in the municipal pipes of Oakland Park and Wilton Manors this week. And furthermore, you could hold a glass of water up and see daylight through it.

Water Superintendents Wallace Wakely of Wilton Manors and Leon Groenboom of Oakland Park had warned that the water would taste pretty awful about Monday of this week, and they weren't kidding.

The heavy taste and color was due to the fact that the water was unavoidably diverted around the filtering system at Oakland Park, while the first step in a $10,000 improvement program was being carried out.

During those few days, the water was treated with chlorine for purity but no filtering was possible.

Most users seemed to agree this week that the water was better tasting and clearer than before the filter system improvement was made.

SCHOOL DISMISSED AT NOON FRIDAY

As all the parents of our school children already know, we are having our May Day program, May 1st, starting at 6 o'clock, on the walk in front of the school building. Everyone is invited to attend. There has been some concern over the fact that there will be a conflict between this program and the Fish Fry. The Fish Fry is to start at 4:30 P. M. Those who wish to attend both should eat early, or later to have time to attend the May Day program.

The Program is being called for six o'clock instead of one-thirty because of the heat at mid-day.

Classes will be dismissed at 12 o'clock on Friday, allowing the children to go home to rest for the evening performance. The bus will come at noon for those who are transported. The bus will go back for them at five o'clock, and return them home after the program.

We hope to have more than two hundred chairs for the visitors to use. Of course, they will have to go on first come, first served basis. That means come early. All children are to be at the school building at five-thirty in order to get ready for the program.

A. A. ANNIVERSARY

The Wilton Manors group of Alcoholics Anonymous will observe its first anniversary at a meeting Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Village Hall. The group meets each Sunday evening at 8, at the Hall.

All persons interested are cordially invited to attend. The meetings are always interesting.

Manors Womans Club Observes Anniversary

The Womans Club of Wilton Manors will commemorate its fifth anniversary with a tea, to be held next Wednesday, May 6, from 2 to 3 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Arthur Morey, 2008 N. E. Fourth Ave., Wilton Manors.

The committee is composed of the executive board members.

The tea will honor the past presidents and the new president, Mrs. Clayton R. Leaver, and the newly elected Broward County Federation president, Mrs. Carl King of Dania.

Mrs. Leaver, Mrs. John Mullock and Mrs. Morey will preside at the tea tables. A skit will be presented by members of the board.

Members and prospective members are invited to attend.

Covenant Church Notes Christian Family Week

Covenant Presbyterian Church will observe Christian Family Week, May 3-10, with special emphasis through sermons by the pastor, the Rev. Russell D. Toms, and a Family Night supper.

The Family Night supper will be held on Wednesday, May 6, at 6:30 p. m., followed by the mid-week service at 7:30 p. m. with a study in the Psalms.

Theme for the 1953 Christian Family Week observance is "A Christian Foundation for Every Home."

May 3 services:
11 a. m.—"The Value of a Christian Home."

Sunday evening, the Sacrament of Holy Communion will be celebrated at the evening service with the Communion meditation by the pastor, "Taking Up the Cross."

The Pioneer Youth Fellowship has elected officers for the 1953 church year. Patricia Hendricks was chosen to be president; Karen Clark will serve as vice president, and Ada Johnson, secretary-treasurer. Adult adviser is Mrs. John Hayes.

CHARTER UP FOR FINAL APPROVAL TUESDAY NIGHT

Wilton Manors' city charter, to be presented to the Legislature in Tallahassee in May, will be up for discussion and possible final approval by the Village Council on Tuesday night.

Village Attorney William G. Miller Jr. told The Sun just before press time this week that the tentative final charter has been completed and copies furnished to council members for study during the days prior to the Tuesday night session.

Miller said the 51-page document's provisions are those agreed on by councilmen when they met on April 7.

That includes a requirement that a referendum must be held before any property taxes may be levied by the council. And it also includes a top limit of $7 tax per thousand dollars of valuation.

Under the proposed charter, a limit of $1200 yearly is placed on councilmen's pay and a $1,000,000 limit on the amount of general obligation bonds the Village may issue.

Miller indicated that he will go to Tallahassee about May 20 to present the charter bill to the Broward County legislative delegation for introduction.

Annual May Breakfast Slated Next Wednesday

The annual May breakfast of the Oakland Park Woman's Club will be held next Wednesday morning at 11 a. m. at Central Park Restaurant in Oakland Park, followed by a card party.

Mrs. C. R. Cone is in charge of reservations, which may be obtained by telephoning Mrs. Cone at 3-5221.

All members of the Womans Club and their friends are invited to attend the breakfast.

Scouts To Attend Civic Association

Members of Boy Scout Troop 123, sponsored by the Wilton Manors Civic Association, will attend the May meeting of the association next Monday night at 8 o'clock to let the membership know what they've been accomplishing this year.

The Monday night meeting in the Village Hall will be the last regular meeting of the association until September. The group is adjourning its regular monthly sessions for the summer.

Association President Frank Hainey is Scoutmaster for the Scout troop sponsored by the group.

W. P. Hartman of Wilton Manors, high district Scout official, is expected to attend the meeting.

Oakland Park committee members for the Holy Cross Hospital Building Fund are shown here at a recent meeting. They are (left to right), Mrs. C. M. Krassy, treasurer of the Cub Scouts; Mrs. R. L. Almeida, secretary of the Florinada Club; Mrs. W. E. McGee, president of the Florinada Club; Mrs. Paul Wheeler, treasurer of the PTA; Mrs. Earl Tucker, president of the PTA; William Karley, chairman of the Cub Scouts, who is serving as co-chairman of the committee for the campaign. ## Womans Club Reports On Home Nursing Class

The first class in Home Nursing was held at the Red Cross on Monday, April 27. Mrs. Julia Sierra, director of Home Nursing, talked on Civil Defense, and pointed out the targets in our district that might be hit in case of an air raid, and explained what the three blasts of the siren means, and what to have ready in case we are bombed. Mrs. Sierra also told of the different kinds of bombs that could be used, and what happens when they are dropped.

Mrs. Sierra also explained how to conserve water in an area that might have all water facilities cut off, also how to sterilize and use a thermometer correctly.

The next meeting on Thursday, April 30, will be held at the Highland Estates Civic Building in Wilton Manors, on N. E. 8th Ave. near 28th St., from 3 p. m. to 5 p. m. We hope to have a larger class next time.

Those attending were Mrs. Clayton Leaver, Mrs. E. R. Sargent, Mrs. Roy Lent, Mrs. Charles Lindfors, Mrs. Herbert Johnston, Mrs. Harry Genthenberg, Mrs. Ervin Eckhardt.

Mrs. Caro Has Visitor

Mrs. M. H. Caro, 405 N. E. 25th St., Wilton Manors, has as her guest her brother, David L. Miller of Paterson, N. J.

This is Mr. Miller's first visit to Florida, and he expects to make his home in the Sunshine State. He hopes to enter the television field in South Florida.

Mr. Miller has been associated with radio station WAAT, Paterson, and now is heard on WMIE, Miami, from 10 to 11:45 a. m.

Girl Scouts Swap News With Friends In West

By Joyce Bridges

We had our regular Girl Scout meeting of Troop 43 Friday afternoon. Our meetings were changed to Friday afternoon from 4:45 to 6:15 because it is a more convenient time for the girls to meet.

After the meeting was called to order, Betty Reibling explained to us the meaning of the Passion Flower. She named all the parts of it and told what each stood for.

In view of the fact that so many of our troop will have parts in the May Day program at school, we feel it is our duty to attend this social activity instead of holding our regular meeting at that time.

Our troop wrote a letter to Hale Lohi, the Hawaiian girl on Arthur Godfrey's program, to ask her for some facts about Hawaii because we are studying about it now.

We also made a collection of things such as flowers, reports and printed information about Florida, which will be sent to a Girl Scout troop in Oregon.

While Mom Plays Cards

Have you heard the news? The PTA fathers of the Oakland Park School are having a Mother's Day card party May 8 at 8 p. m. This is one affair where "Mom" can sit down and enjoy herself while "Dad" takes over.

There will be table prizes, refreshments and door prizes galore, and the tickets are only 50 cents. The oldest mother, the youngest mother, and the mother with the most children will each receive a corsage at the party. Don't miss the fun; tickets are still available at 134 N. W. 4th Street in Oakland Park or by calling 3-0798. See you there!

"FOR A BETTER COMMUNITY"

Our Own Homogenized

Hot Air

By CARTER HOLMES

Tallahassee, the capital city of Florida, is a hub of commerce in the northwest section of the Peninsular State, or the Sunshine State. It is served by several railroads, more than one airline, and 4,721 bootleggers. Tallahassee is a somewhat wild and woolly community during the 60 days of the State Legislature's biennial meeting.

And that is one reason why the editor is taking his dependable, conservative wife on his 1953 trip to the capital city.

Of course there are other reasons. Such a gentle lady surely needs and deserves a vacation, or second honeymoon, after years of residence with a rascalion of the editor's ilk. Lest we impart an inaccurate impression, however, let it hastily be said that it is comparatively easy for even a conservative citizen to lose his way, bourbonistically speaking, in the helter-skelter of Tallahassee "during the session."

Tallahassee is truly a beautiful city at this time of year, beaming with the misty touches of Spring that are barely noticeable in South Florida. You see things, hear things and smell things that are almost foreign to a more tropical clime. Especially in the early morning as a light fog is lifting to give way to sunlight.

At night, "during the session", the sights and sounds are chiefly muffled politicos' voices wreathed in cigar smoke and hung round and about the odor of rare old hooch. It is not intended to leave the impression that all our illustrious legislators are boozers, for such is not the case. What makes the presence of rivers of Old Bird Dog so impressive is the fact that Tallahassee is the county seat of Leon County, a dry territory. The day following the close of the "session", all the law officers suddenly come huffing and puffing out of their sanctuaries, startled by a rumor that somebody has seen somebody with a half pint of something. "GAD!", they shout; "THIS CALLS FOR A CAREW-SADE!"

We picked up a splendid little guide for the baseball fan the other day at C. B. Maxson's place in Oakland Park; it is a six-league complete schedule with a lot of additional information of various kinds useful to the sports-pager, folded like a road map in a compact little cardboard case. You may have one for the asking; ask C. B. or Lynn Cahill.

Returning once again to the subject of Tallahassee in the springtime, let readers and advertisers take note that we are going to be away only a few days, to obtain information for next week's issue of The Sun and to do a few recordings for broadcast over WBRD sometime during the week, to be sponsored in part by Williams Phcy., for which sponsorship we thank his honor, Doc. We are always able to glean some clear-cut information to aid our listeners and readers in charting their courses as prescribed by state law.

Don't miss Monday night's civic association meeting in Wilton Manors, 8 p. m. at the Village Hall. And don't miss yon Fish Fry Friday on Wilton Dr.

Oakland Park Loses Close One, 8 to 7

Oakland Park softball team lost a close contest to Pompano Beach last Saturday night after leading the northerners by five runs up to the sixth inning. A good crowd watched the game.

Final score was 8-7. Oakland Park led 7-2 until the sixth when Pompano tied the tally at 7-7. Pompano forced in a score on an error in the eighth to gain the margin that finally spelled the difference.

Don Williams was on the mound for the Oakland Park club.

Manager Dick Marthens commented that everybody played a good game. "As the season gets underway we should have a really good, hustling club," Marthens said.

Next game in Oakland Park will be played next Friday night, May 8, at 8 o'clock.

KIWANIS GETS PRIZE IN VOTE CAMPAIGN

The nation-wide non-partisan register and vote campaign, "BALLOT BATTALION," spearheaded by the Kiwanis Club of Wilton Manors in cooperation with all civic-minded, patriotic groups during 1952, has been awarded the Freedoms Foundation George Washington Honor Medal, and also a major prize from The American Heritage Foundation, James C. Dean, club president, announced.

These awards were won by Kiwanis International in competition with hundreds of entries to the awards juries of the Freedoms Foundation of Valley Forge, Pa., and The American Heritage Foundation of New York City. The Freedoms Foundation Award gives to Kiwanis the distinction of being recognized by this organization for the third consecutive year for its Americanism programs. Both organizations are non-profit, non-political, and non-sectarian and actively work to promote more personal participation in citizenship and the furthering of the American way of life.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

From

Guy S. Matthews
U.S. SENATOR

Washington — I Make Debate Circuit—High school and college debating teams throughout the country will be discussing next year the desirability of election reforms which I have been fighting for in Congress for the past six years.

The National University Extension Association has advised me that the subject chosen for the national high school forensic series for the academic year 1953-1954 will be: "How Should We Select the President of the United States?" The discussion questions chosen are, "What are the problems of choosing the president." "How can the method of nominating presidential candidates be improved"; and, "How can the method of selecting the president of the United States be improved?"

The debate propositions are to be built around the constitutional amendments I have proposed for presidential nominating primaries, to abolish convention rigging, and then to reform the Electoral College so that the final deciding vote would be in proportion to the popular vote in each state.

Bower Aly, Editor of the Discussion and Debate Manual, wrote me about this matter, inviting me to supply additional material to the Committee on Discussion and Debate Materials and Interstate Cooperation, of which Miss Bernice Mims, of the General Extension Division of Florida, is a member. I was glad to oblige for as Macauley said, "Men are never so likely to settle a question rightly as when they discuss it freely."

I Return To Air—This week I am planning to renew my weekly radio reports to the people of Florida; it is important that the people be constantly informed of happenings in the nation's capital and the activities of their representatives. I am grateful to those who are bringing me back to the airways . . . . .

I See A Boat Christened — I could not resist a flying trip to Fort Lauderdale Saturday for the launching of the first in a series of new type steel harbor tugs being built there for the Navy. My sweet Rosemary wielded the champagne bottle for the occasion and I was in the role of spectator, along with other members of our families whom we see too infrequently.

OAKLAND PARK

To them God chose to make known how great . . . are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. (Colossians 1:28. R.S.V.) Read 1 Corinthians, Chapter 13.

In his letter to the church at Corinth, Paul sets forth the principles of Christian love, the standard by which the Christian lives. Love is of God, and man is neither to descend to selfishness nor to criticize the limitations of others. He points out that loving people—hating their sin but not the sinner—is one of the great experiences which can be ours. God is Love, and Christian love is the highest and best gift bestowed upon us.

Paul is concerned that each is to be, in the name of Christ, a minister to all others. He must be ready to suffer, even die, that men may be saved. He laid down the great principle of absolute equality before God. Christ died for all. He invites all to become one in Him, for in death He was translated into an abiding spiritual presence, influencing others in the quest for the realization of the Kingdom of God.

PRAYER

Our most gracious heavenly Father, we are grateful for Christ who has appeared for the salvation of all men. Help us to live godly lives. Help us to show forth Christ-like love toward others. Keep us humble, for thine are the power and the glory, both now and forever. In the name of Jesus. Amen.

THE TOY MAKER

Once there was a toymaker who lived in a little town called Black Creek. He was a jolly man, and the people called him Mr. Jolly.

When a girl came in with a broken doll he fixed it. When a boy came in with a broken airplane, he fixed it. And when children were sick he made them toys.

One day a child came into Mr. Jolly's shop and asked if he would make him a toy. Mr. Jolly set to work making a toy for him. When it was done Mr. Jolly gave it to him. It was a little man, and he could move his arms and legs.

The boy thanked Mr. Jolly and went out of the store.

Later the same day, a boy came in who looked like the other one. Mr. Jolly looked at the boy. He said, "Didn't you come in here this morning?"

"No," said the boy, "that was my brother Bill. My name is Bob. Will you make me a toy?"

"Yes," said Mr. Jolly, and he went to work to make the boy a toy.

When it was done Mr. Jolly gave the toy to the boy.

"Thank you," said the boy.

There came a new boy to the town. He had a cold and it was a bad one. Mr. Jolly did not know that the boy was sick. He was sick for a long time. When he got well his father came and said to Mr. Jolly, "Will you make a toy, and I will pay you for it?"

"O. K.," said Mr. Jolly. So he went to work, and when it was done, he gave it to the man, and the man paid him for it.

The man said, "My boy was sick, so I had to buy him a toy." Mr. Jolly said, "I did not know that your boy was sick. Here is a toy for him."

The next day the boy came in and said, "Thank you for the toy. I had fun with it."

By RUSSELL KAY

I had a rather unusual experience today when I was called on to appear as a character witness for a responsible business executive who local law enforcement officers had been kicking around for the better part of a week with apparently no reason other than the exercise of misplaced authority. I have heard frequent reports of shabby treatment received by out-of-state visitors at the hands of irresponsible constables and deputies in Florida but this was the first time I had come face to face with such high handed action.

My friend Lloyd J. Wavering, public relations representative of the Curtiss Candy Company of Chicago, who brought the famed six-pony hitch to this state for appearances at the Orange Bowl, Florida State Fair, Florida Citrus Exposition and other events, drove to Sunshine Park Race Track at Oldsmar on Friday afternoon to see the races.

Walking about the grounds he saw a ticket lying on the grass near the clubhouse and picked it up. Looking at it he saw that it was a winning ticket. Thinking that someone had either lost it or thrown it away not realizing its value he took it to the cashier's window and turned it in. The man at the window asked him to wait a minute. Shortly, two officers came up and put him under arrest. They claimed he was trying to cash a "tampered" ticket. He explained that he had found it and asked the man at the window if it was any good.

Without further questioning they hustled him to the office, frisked him, and when he told them his name, informed them that he was an employee of the Curtiss Candy Company, and was a guest at the Thomas Jefferson Hotel in Tampa, the officers discounted everything he said. They turned him over to a deputy from the Sheriff's office who took him to the county jail where he was booked for "vagrancy and investigation."

He asked permission to phone his company or get in touch with me. He was denied this right and thrown into a cell without further consideration. He repeatedly asked for permission to phone his company for he was responsible for the pony team which was to appear in Orlando on Monday. He might as well have been appealing to a flock of Egyptian mummies or members of the Russian Secret Police. He remained in jail "incommunicado" from Friday afternoon until Tuesday morning when he was informed that the charge against him had been changed to "attempted grand larceny" and he was allowed to use the phone. His hearing was set for Thursday morning.

In the meantime, two representatives of his company had been trying frantically to locate him. The hotel management checked his room and found all his belongings just as he had left them. Hospitals and the city police were checked. Nobody, it seemed, had ever heard of the man. When his call came through, company representatives obtained a lawyer and went to the county jail. They called me, explaining what had happened. The poor chap after five days in the jug without a shave or a change of clothing was a pitiful sight and on the verge of a nervous collapse.

Would I attend the hearing and appear as a character witness? I certainly would and did. The cashier who had taken the ticket at the window identified Attorney Wm. C. Pierce as the man he THOUGHT cashed the ticket. Then he looked at Wavering and "didn't think he had ever seen him before." To make the farce louder and funnier, the man who had taken Wavering into custody identified himself as "Chief of Police" for the Sunshine Park Race Track. When questioned by the judge it turned out that the man had never been commissioned with police powers by any authorized law enforcement agency.

Asked why they had permitted the man to stay in jail for five days without a chance to call anyone or without charges being brought against him, they said it was Friday and they couldn't get a warrant until Monday.

Justice of the Peace Hendry dismissed the case for complete lack of evidence of any crime. I'm telling this story because, as a citizen of Florida, I think it is an outrage and a disgrace. It certainly reflects no credit on Sunshine Park or the state.

The only heartening thing about the whole sorry mess was the fact that Attorney Wm. C. Pierce refused a fee for his services. In lieu of a fee he asked Mr. Wavering not to think too harshly of Tampa or Florida and remember that in spite of this ugly experience there were many friendly decent citizens who resented such uncalled-for treatment and welcomed an opportunity to come to his aid. I shudder to think what might have happened to the poor guy if he had gone to the hearing without the knowledge of his friends. And, Mr. Citizen, the same thing could happen to you!

$12,660 Given to Holy Cross Drive
By Wilton Manors and Oakland Park

During the recent public campaign of the Holy Cross Hospital Building Fund, residents of Oakland Park contributed $7,344.30, while $4,853 was raised in Wilton Manors. These reports were made by William Karley, Oakland Park co-chairman, and James C. Dean, Wilton Manors chairman, at the campaign's Victory Dinner. Together with amounts previously contributed to the fund by Oakland Park residents, a total of $7,588.58 has been raised in that community, while a total of $5,071.45 has been assembled in Wilton Manors.

A grand total of $1,251,259.14 has been subscribed to the fund, assuring construction of the 200-bed hospital as originally planned. Contributions by citizens of communities outside of Fort Lauderdale amounted to $73,824.60 of this total.

A last-minute anonymous gift of $45,000 from an out-of-town contributor was announced at the Victory Dinner by the Right Reverend Monsignor John J. O'Looney, pastor of St. Anthony's Church, Fort Lauderdale, putting the campaign over the top.

"There is one condition to this contribution," Monsignor O'Looney noted. "That condition is that each of you continues to work until all your calls are completed and the pledges are at the building fund office."

Before the $45,000 anonymous gift was announced, the volunteer workers from all committees had turned in, at the Victory Dinner, a total of $1,206,259.14 in 3,901 subscriptions, representing the results of their activities since the third report luncheon, for an average of more than $32,000 a day raised in five days.

"With this outstanding achievement we are nearing the end of a project that has never been equaled in the state of Florida," Maus noted when the reports were completed. He went on to say that construction of the hospital will begin as soon as possible. He noted that it will take two or three weeks to determine the total amount forthcoming from the campaign.

Maus said that the Most Reverend Joseph P. Hurley, Archbishop of the St. Augustine diocese, was prepared to make available $1,250,000 to complete the cost of the proposed $2,500,000 hospital.

Archbishop Hurley, who could not attend the dinner because of a previous engagement, commended all those who had a share in the campaign through a telegram, read by Monsignor O'Looney.

M. A. Horst, who was called on by Maus to address the meeting, said: "I don't think I have ever had as much pleasure addressing an audience.

"There was a time when this campaign looked shaky," he continued, "but I knew that we would put it over if we all got behind it in the right way. I have been repaid many times for the part I have played in the campaign by the new associations I have made."
