WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

From

George Matthews
U.S. SENATOR

WASHINGTON — In the Senate last week came the first test between the Democrats and Republicans on an issue which is clear and easily understood. It was a demonstration of strength by those of us who believe in the real free enterprise system which encourages and protects the small business man as well as big business a fight we won at least temporarily by a margin of 47-42.

FLORIDA'S STAKE: Florida is a state of small businesses. Thousands of these businesses have remained sound because of our free government's policies. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation has given assistance to many of them. Some have been enabled to contribute to national security through loans from the Small Defense Plants Administration.

The average SDPA loan in Florida during the emergency period was $232,500. Under the measure pending in the Congress loan maximum in the future would be $100,000. Loans would be made only upon approval of the secretaries of treasury and commerce and there would be additional restrictions, prohibiting loans.

The somewhat unexpected contest in the Senate came on the Republican leadership's motion to adopt a report which would have created a Small Business Administration to take over the lending functions of SPDA and the RFC. There had been no previous Senate discussion of the measure and charges were made that it represented another effort toward legislation in the dark, and law-making by steamroller.

VICTORY FOR SMALL BUSINESS—But the real victory was won by those who believe in small business and the right of the small business man to have some advantages which permit him to compete with big business. A healthy small business structure in this nation is essential to a sound national economy and without such a structure our form of government must change. I like the country we have today, even with its faults. I do not think I would like a country devoted to and controlled by big business. My conviction is that what is good for small business is good for the country.

Dangerous Crossing Now Protected With Gates

Oakland Park residents felt like Santa Claus had paid them a visit this week when, at long last, workmen completed the installation of safety gates and blinkers at the Ocean Boulevard crossing of the FEC railway.

Completion of the work ended a battle of several years' duration as city officials and others have fought to have the dangerous crossing protected with proper safety devices.

Installation required three weeks and the equipment cost several thousand dollars.

City Councilmen authorized City Clerk Elizabeth Tucker Wednesday night to write the railroad a letter of appreciation for the signal.

City Hall Plans Formed At Meeting

Preliminary plans for a fund raising campaign were discussed by members of the Wilton Manors City Hall publicity committee at a meeting Monday night, presided over by Norman Malcolm, co-chairman of the group.

Indications are that a full-fledged drive to obtain funds for the projected new municipal building will get started within a very short time.

Malcolm and Mayor Perry Mickel, who is general chairman of the building committee, said all signs point to a "good reception" from the public toward the new city hall to be built in Middle River Estates.

"People realize we are to build this structure without tax money, and everybody I've talked to seems more than willing to contribute," Malcolm declared.

The mayor added he already has been offered several contributions, but had postponed accepting them until the drive formally gets underway.

"This building will give us the kind of meeting place and office building we need," Mickel asserted.

A sign has been erected on the future building site on 26th Street east of the FEC railway.

Purchases Okayed For Water System

Oakland Park City Council has authorized engineers to purchase certain materials needed in the expansion and improvement of the municipal water plant which supplies Oakland Park, Wilton Manors, North Andrews Gardens and several other areas.

The action came Wednesday night when engineer R. B. Wiggins, representing the Walter McElfresh firm, appeared before the council to explain plans for enlarging the system so that it will be adequate for "years in the future".

A city spokesman declared the water also will be improved greatly in taste and color when the improvements are completed.

Newspaperman Gets Kiwanis Presidency

DONALD T. FORSYTHE

Delegates attending the 38th annual convention of Kiwanis International at New York, New York elected a prominent editor and publisher from Carthage, Illinois, to head the organization in the year ahead.

Officers of the Kiwanis Club of Wilton Manors were informed today that Donald T. Forsythe, who publishes The Carthage Journal, Carthage, Illinois, would succeed Walter J. L. Ray, Detroit, Michigan, as president of Kiwanis International, which is now comprised of over 3,600 clubs throughout the United States, Canada, Alaska, Hawaii, and the Yukon Territory.

Wilton Manors Kiwanis President James C. Dean, Vice President Lou Menefee and Director Ed Claggett represented Wilton Manors at the convention.

President-elect Forsythe is a past president of the Illinois Press Association and a life member of the Northwestern University Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity. In May 1949, he was elected first president of the Greater Weeklies Associates, Inc., an organization comprised of more than 250 weekly newspapers. He was re-elected to that office in 1950 and chairman of the board of directors in 1951. He is now a member of the board, elected at the April convention in New York City.

He is a director of the Marine Trust Company of Carthage, a member of the Board of Carthage College, and was active in organizing a department of journalism at the school.

A Kiwanian for 27 years, the new president will assume office August 1. During the past year he served as treasurer of Kiwanis International. He had previously been an International trustee and governor of the Illinois-Eastern convention, which drew an adult attendance exceeding 11,000 men and women from all sections of Canada and the United States, also treasurer, and six trustees.

Vice Presidents are Ralph D. Steele of Chatham, Ontario, an attorney, and John R. Wright of Lakeland, Florida, a realtor.

Don. E. Engdahl of Spokane, Washington, a manufacturer, was elected treasurer of the organization.

Vandalism May Bring Curfew Law For Oakland Park, Juveniles Told

Oakland Park, faced with a serious outbreak of juvenile vandalism, may seek to crack the problem with a curfew law aimed at roaming bands of youngsters. That was a warning this week, The Sun learned, placed before juveniles and parents by authorities in a meeting with representatives of several enforcement agencies. This meeting, it was learned, was called in an effort to straighten out the situation without drastic action, if possible. It may have gotten results.

CD Agency Joins Red Cross Forces For Storm Action

Broward County Civil Defense authorities have joined hands with the American Red Cross in preparation for any hurricane emergency that may arise during the summer storm season, it was announced this week.

Frank C. Ghiotto, county civil defense director, has called on division heads in various communities to alert their teams in should occur.

Ghiotto asked for "closest cooperation" of the CD forces in coordinating their activities with those of the local Red Cross chapters.

Department of Civil Defense now in working order and prepared for any emergency include: county and city transportation, communications, auxiliary fire and police, observation, sanitation, engineering and rescue, and medical aid.

Citizens who wish to enroll in the Civil Defense Corps for assignment of specific duties may obtain application forms at the Ft. Lauderdale Post Office.

Sargents Embrace All Branches of Service

Sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Sargent, whose residence is at 700 NE 24th Place, Wilton Manors, are serving virtually every branch of the United States armed forces.

S Sgt. and Mrs. Richard L. Sargent and their son, Dickie, visited with his parents here recently before Sgt. Sargent was due to leave for overseas. His wife and son will return to Alexandria, La., where they have been stationed. They hope later to join him overseas.

Pfc George I. Sargent, who is serving in the United States Marine Corps, recently was transferred from Camp LeJeune, N. C., to the base at Quantico, Va.

Chief Petty Officer Elbert Sargent, meanwhile, is stationed at the Great Lakes naval training station of the U. S. Navy. His wife is with him there.

Trustees elected for two years include Luman W. Holman of Jacksonville, Texas, a lumberman; Everett F. Penhorn of Jamaica Plain, Massachusetts, a roofing contractor; Simon H. (Sy) Reynolds of Rochester, New York, an advertising executive; Albert J. Tully of Mobile, Alabama, a lawyer; Reed C. Culp of Salt Lake City, Utah, a broker; W. Donald DuBail of West St. Louis, Missouri, an attorney. The latter two men are re-elected trustees.

Seventy-nine panes of glass were broken at Oakland Park Elementary School in one weekend;

Repeated acts of vandalism have occurred at the municipal park, established and maintained largely for the benefit of youngsters;

The owner of a drive-in theatre closed for the time being because noisy and troublesome juveniles drove customers away.

These were some of the complaints brought into the open at the meeting, attended by parents, juveniles, police and sheriff's department members, juvenile authorities, members of the clergy and city officials. Such severe measures as a curfew law may be avoided.

Police Chief J. M. Barnhill said at press time that the trouble has been sharply reduced since the conference was held.

"I hope it continues this way," Barnhill added.

Mayor Dewey Hawkins, it was understood, told the gathering in effect that if no lesser action gets results, he would recommend to the council that a law be passed setting a strict and early curfew when juveniles without supervision must be off the streets.

"FOR A BETTER COMMUNITY"

Too Late to Classify

By RUSSELL KAY

Listening to a quiz program the other evening I was impressed with the pitiful lack of knowledge displayed by some of the contestants relative to simple questions that every alert American should be able to answer unhesitatingly. While contestants had no difficulty in answering such questions as "Name three members of the pitching staff of the New York Yankees," or "Identify the location of Madison Square Garden, Shibe Park and Soldier's Field," they were stricken dumb and were still speechless at the bell on such questions as "Name three members of the Supreme Court of the United States," and "Name the 13 original states."

It evidenced the weakness of our educational system in teaching the simple principles of Americanism and our failure to do a real selling job for America in our schools and colleges.

Young America can promptly identify Barbara Stanwyck but has forgotten, if it ever heard of, Barbara Fritchie. We know more about "Minute Maid" than we do "Minute Men." The name "Sheridan" registers "Ann" and not "Phil." The prefix "Old" seems more important in connection with the name "Taylor" than "Zachary."

It is heartening, in the face of this deplorable situation, to find that one of our institutions of higher learning has taken cognizance of the situation and has established a Department of American Culture which now offers students a Major or Minor in the field of "The American Idea."

The American Course was inaugurated in the summer of 1951, with a seminar course on this history of American Culture. By the fall of 1952 the complete course had been organized with 150 students enrolled.

Special Americanism classes include such subjects as The History of American Institutions, The Bible and Foreign Culture, American Literature, Comparative Government, Exposing the Fallacy of Communism, History of the United States, Christianity in America, American Music, American Art, American Writers, American Culture, and Management and American Labor Relations.

Florida Southern College is the first in the nation to establish a course in Americanism. It is certain to spread to other educational institutions, and a few years from now Southern may point with pride to the fact that here began such an important advance in American Education.

Florida Southern's plans of helping to make a stronger and greater America by making stronger and better Americans has aroused the interest of many prominent citizens outside of the educational field.

These folks recognize that a small independent college needs funds to build such a new department. In the belief that Southern's leadership will help encourage other colleges to give more thought to teaching Americanism, an "Americanism in Education Committee" was recently organized under leadership of Samuel

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. (Matthew 11:28.) Read Romans 9:21-26

Since World War II, many thousands of immigrants have arrived in Australia. Of these, several thousand were displaced persons who had lost everything in the tragic years of war. They arrived in Australia friendless, ignorant of the language, and in many instances, hopeless. To help such new Australians, cities and suburbs and towns were urged to establish "Good Neighbor Councils." Through these councils new hope was given to men, women, and children whose history had been written in terms of imprison-

I. Fletcher of West Palm Beach to raise funds through contributions to further this worthwhile movement.

The committee hopes to expand its activities throughout the state with a minimum goal of $100,000 to maintain and enlarge Florida Southern's Department of American Culture. Chairman Fletcher has issued an appeal requesting anyone desiring to support the campaign or seeking additional information to write him at 195 Belmonte Road, West Palm Beach.

"This is a 25 year plan to combat Socialism and Communism on the College Campus," points out Fletcher. If properly guided, it will give this nation better qualified leadership in the years ahead.

Let's all cooperate to make true Americanism as popular and familiar to the average citizen as hot-dogs and Coco-Cola.

ment, torture, and friendlessness. So new liberty has come to those unfortunate people.

Christ brings liberty into the lives of those who come to Him. No matter what degree of misery, sin, loneliness, or suffering has been experienced, the love of Christ is sufficient to replace all by a great sense of freedom from every burden. In Him we find liberty indeed.

PRAYER

Our Father, we know that evil has often enslaved us. We feel ashamed of our failure to defeat the sin which has attacked us. Help us to accept the power of Thy presence which gives freedom from evil through the conquering strength of Thy love. In Christ's name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

In Christ we find liberty indeed.

AMERICANISM

July 4th is with us again. This is just about the oldest holiday that we celebrate each year. At the beginning, the celebration was for the establishment of our new republic. But as of recent years, the celebration has turned into a record of deaths that runs into the hundreds each "Glorious Fourth" holiday.

We would like to suggest that each and every one of us pause for a few moments during our holiday making and give a little thought to what the 4th of July really means.

To us, it means Americanism. And, fortunately for us, this is one "ism" of which we need have no fear. History is now full of the horrors caused by Nazism, Fascism, and now Communism. While the first two "isms" have, as we say, gone by the boards, we still have communism to contend with.

In one sense of the word, the contrast between Americanism and communism can be best explained by the using of the now famous Rosenberg case as one example, and the rioting in East Berlin as a comparison. We all know, that the Rosenbergs were tried and found guilty about two years ago. Then began a series of legal maneuvers that postponed their execution for that long period of time. You will all recall that none of the appeals were based on the fact of whether they were guilty or not. The only thing that was questioned was the amount of punishment that was to be meted out to them. The fantastic amounts of monies that were used surely did not come from the Rosenbergs or their families. Tremendous pressure was exerted by people and officials from all parts of the world on our President, and our courts. And, after it was all over, our President, members of the United States Supreme Court, and other officials were called many epithets, the mildest of which were reported to be "murderers".

Now contrast this situation with the one in East Berlin where the Germans recently revolted against conditions that even the Communists admitted were completely unjust. During the riot, a German was picked up, charged with inciting the riot, tried and hung, all in the same day. Not two years later, as in the Rosenberg case, but the SAME DAY.

Yes, it's great to be an American. And there is no better time than the 4th of July for all of us to take a few moments and think of all of the wonderful privileges that we all have as Americans. No one, no matter in which part of this world he lives in, can even remotely begin to have anything as we have here.
