WILTON SUNRISE NEWS,

DETOUR SIGN LEAVES MOTORIST ENROUTE TO WILTON MANORS CONFUSED

Placed on N. E. 4th Ave., the site of installation of surface drainage sewers, the Detour Sign fails to direct Wilton Manors traffic on how to get there. There are no other directional signs after one takes a choice of direction to go (Sign indicates to detour East or West). Best Route into Wilton Manors Business Center is to turn left to Andrews Ave., then right on Andrews to the north end of Richardson's Golf Course (N. E. 21st Ct.) - turn right to Business Section.

Wilton Manors City Charter

Not Safe For Burglars To Sleep

Upon the investigation of three youths found sleeping in an automobile, Wilton Manors Police officers L. C. Baker and F. Cave recovered two new auto tires, several cartons of cigarettes, a box of cigars, and 335 pennies wrapped in a handkerchief. One of the youths was reported to be a juvenile 16 years of age.

Raymond Phillip Bass, age 23, from Charlotte, N.C., an exconvict with a lengthy record and Clyde Morris Yeargin, 17, of Monroe N.C., along with the 16 year old juvenile also of Monroe, admitted to the officers that they broke into a Pompano Beach restaurant by smashing out a pane of glass in the side door, then turning the handle of the door to gain admittance.

Most of the stolen articles came from a break-in at Delray, so the trio will be tried in Palm Beach County for grand larceny and breaking and entering.

NEW DRESS SHOP OPENS ON 26TH STREET

Fleurette's Dress Shop, stocked with a large selection of dresses for all age groups - half sizes, Junior and Misses, Sub Teen, Pre Teen and children's 3 to 6X, opened their doors Monday, July 9th. The new shop is owned and operated by Mrs. Fleurette Gistinelli, wife of the owner-builder of the recently completed modern structure housing the new business. Mrs. Gistinelli is a rarity in Florida; she was born and reared in Ft. Lauderdale. Mr. Gistinelli came here about 10 yrs. ago from Peabody, Mass. Two girls and one boy complete the family circle.

INK SPILLED BY THE EDITOR

SUBJECT: SABAL POINT BEACH

Visitors to the popular Sabal Point Beach area are now turned back by "No Trespassing" signs and chain barricades. Recently, multi-millionaire Arthur Vining Davis obtained an option to buy the beach area of Sabal Point. Stuart L. Moore, President of the Boca Raton Properties, Inc., in a statement to the Miami News said "The land had been posted in the best interest of all residents of Boca Raton", using as an excuse, that the beaches had been abused by out-of-town persons. According to the Miami News article, Moore stated "We just could'nt afford to keep cleaning up the area". He further stated "We do realize very keenly that it is our duty as good members of the community to so administer our property as to enhance the reputation of Boca Raton rather than to encourage abuses which could easily and quickly lead to the destruction of the town's good name.

It is this Editor's opinion that the easy and quick way to cause destruction of Boca Raton's good name, is to refuse use of Sabal Point to the public. The area is well known to sportsmen country-wide for it's good fishing. The rapid growth of the community will fast use up the small strip of public beach. Attraction of tourists and outsiders after all, is the largest slice of economy stabilizer the area has, and good beaches do attract visitors.

Moore also said "We will be happy to entertain suggestions of anyone with a workable plan for enjoyment of fishing and privileges by local citizens, without the abuse that has attended this effort in the recent past".

Although Mr. Moore recognizes no obligation to convert valuable private property into a public park for all-comers, this Editor would like to take advantage of Mr. Moore's invitation for suggestions of a workable plan, not only for the enjoyment of privileges by local citizens, but also for visitors from all over the world who come to our famous State to enjoy our hospitality, our beaches and our wonderful climate.

We humbly suggest that Arthur Vining Davis give a deed to the City of Boca Raton for the land in question, to be used as a public recreational facility, thus enhancing Boca Raton's good name.

This recently completed modern building, is located adjacent to and west of the Wilton Manors National Bank in the 1500 block of 26th Street. The building houses 6 store units and 14 office rooms. Package rental deal includes air conditioning and janitor service. 60% rented, it is now occupied by a Dress Shop and Real Estate Office, and will soon have three Attorneys, a Massage Salon and a Title Insurance Office. Owner and Builder is F. Gistinelli, former owner of Egg & You Restaurant.
